A few thoughts and questions.

Mr. Editor: —A notice of Mr. Rockwood's resignation at the request of some of his people, published in a former issue of your paper, suggests a few thoughts; and may I ask a few ques-tions? First, I thought it queer that the people should feel so kindly towards the people should feel so kindly toward-bim, and their people should feel so kindly toward-bim, and the feel in life without an idea, and the without an of life, ho identified biuself with that society, making its interests. I thought of the natural pride experienced by them as they felt that they had found and secured what all admitted to be, one of God's most able and initiated ambassulors. A few questions arise la my mind. From what source it is spiritual hlessings coace? Has he closed his ear to the voice of their supplications? Does God convert through the minister's style?
